

fifth cambridge international super 8
film festival 2011 awards ceremony

sunday 1 may @ 7pm

a selection of films not in competition, followed by the awarding of prizes by the jury

Summer Grass 2/10

Mie Kurihara / 2008 / Japan / 10 min.
experiment

A hot and quiet summer arrives once again. Only 20% of ants actually do any work.

Roommate Needed

Christopher Lee / 2009 / United States
4 min. / comedy

A silent comedy about a man who discovers his new roommate has a horrendously disturbing snore.

facebook.com/chrislee988

The Naked Animator (Version Bent 8)

Charlie Blackfield / 2010 / United Kingdom
2 min. / Documentary/Animation

Filmic-lyrical self-portrait, originally made for Straight 8 UK 2010 and then slightly modified.

The Bathroom Mirror

Jessica Cheeseman / 2008 / United Kingdom
3 min. / Experimental, documentary

Euan, a 6 year old boy with severe non-verbal autism, is taking his morning wash. This film was made to illustrate how a mundane daily routine for most people can be a fascinating ritual for someone who finds everyday life confusing and frightening.

The Fuel and Wood Situation

Mat Laroche / 2010 / United Kingdom / 3 min. / documentary

PJ Wakeham works seven days a week delivering fuel, wood and coal by to the residents of the Grand Union Canal. He does so by boat.

www.matlaroche.com

2010: La Corunna in Super-8 Kodachrome

Ignacio Benedeti / 2010 / Spain / 10 min.
Documentary

A tribute to 75 years of magical chemical colours, with the background of my city, La Corunna, in the north west of Spain. Filmed with Kodachrome film loaded in Single-8 cartridges, with the Fuji ZC1000, with Iscorama anamorphic.

<http://www.vimeo.com/16502962>

followed by screenings of the winning films